Postlude

Welcome to our continuing celebration of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit breathed the church into being!

Prayers for healing for: Natalie teRiele, Corina Bassity, Anna Webster, Jan, Rachel, Ava, Barry, Brooke.
Good Jesus, physician of souls and bodies, in your mercy tend to those who are burdened with illness; soothe with your presence each ache and pain because you have known the weakness and pain of our mortal bodies, teach us to unite our sufferings with yours and give us patience to endure our own pain and tender sympathy for the pain of others, that in all things we may grow in knowledge of you and in all circumstances may accomplish your good purposes. Amen.
—Saint Augustine's Prayer Book

Psalm 86: LXXXVI Inclina, Domine

That we may flourish in your tenderness
Bow down and hear the whispers of our fear
Our restless misery, our emptiness

Without you. Christ come close to me and hear!
Come close and comfort me in troubled times,
I need your mercy now for I despair

Of any other help. The telling chimes
Of every passing bell might be my own
Lift up my soul, and breathe through my poor rhymes

That I might lay these lines before your throne
A frail corona wreathed of fading flowers'
To set against the gold of David's crown.

Wrought in the pattern of my passing hours,
O you, who raised me from the depths of hell,
Kindle these lines with all your quickening powers.

DAVID'S CROWN Sounding the Psalms
MALCOLM GUIE

For the whole world before thee is as a little grain of the balance, yea, as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth.
For thou lovest all the things that are, and abhorrest nothing which thou has made: for never wouldst thou have made anything, if thou hast hated it.
And how could any thing have endured if it had not been thy will? Or been preserved if not called by thee?
But thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Lord, thou lover of souls.

The moving passage from the Wisdom of Solomon (11:22-26) in the Apocrypha reminds us that a loving God does not make rubbish. None of us were created to be thrown away.

 O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

"Welcoming the weary,
 Dedicated to discipleship"

From the invitation of Jesus in Matt. 11:28-30

As a congregation, we seek to:

1. open our doors to all who come, regardless of race, class, gender, disability, or religion,
2. reach out in service to our neighbors, especially the poor and elderly

As individual members we seek to:

1. grow daily in the understanding and practice of our faith,
2. care for one another as beloved brothers and sisters in Christ.
